

ANTHONY C. STANOWSKI, DHA, FACHE

Anthony Stanowski, DHA, FACHE, is the President and CEO for the Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Management Education (CAHME). Anthony guides the strategic vision and operations to ensure that CAHME meets its mission: to advance the quality of healthcare management education globally. More than 120 programs are CAHME-accredited.

He is a longstanding board member of the Healthcare Planning and Marketing Society of New Jersey where he was honored with the title President Emeritus. He received the Society Recognition Award in 2004 and again in 2014, in 2011 was honored along with Aramark and Capital Health 2011 with the Special Achievement Award, and in 2018 with CAHME and Oxford Communications received a PerCy Award. Anthony has served in every type of committee during his 20+ years with HPMSNJ and considers the contacts he has made among members some of the best of his career.
